

“You can do everything wrong, but with excitement and enthusiasm, and succeed beyond your expectations, and you can do everything right without enthusiasm and fail!”

Mary Kay Ash

This CD is your first CD in the new consultant series that you will receive from me. It was created by our former National Sales Director Asenath Brock. She always taught us that “your attitude will determine your altitude and that Attitude is everything!” I know you will enjoy hearing her and I hope this will transform your thoughts and words to make a difference in your life, not just your Mary Kay business!

Love, Jen
